

Existing form 200-138

- Court records indicate that above captioned case has met the following criteria:
- The court did not find probable cause, or the charge was dismissed without prejudice
 - 45 days have elapsed since the disposition of the case
 - No party objected to sealing the criminal history record

Therefore, it is so ordered that the above captioned criminal history record be sealed pursuant to 13 V.S.A. §7603(a).

- Court records indicate that above captioned case has met the following criteria:
- The defendant was acquitted of charge or the charge was dismissed with prejudice before trial
 - 45 days have elapsed since the disposition of the case
 - No party objected to expunging the criminal history record

Therefore, it is so ordered that the above captioned criminal history record be expunged pursuant to 13 V.S.A. §7603(e).

- Court records indicate that above captioned case has met the following criteria:
- The criminal history record was sealed pursuant to 13 V.S.A. § 7603(a) or (g)
 - 8 years have elapsed since the record was sealed
 - No party objected to expunging the criminal history record

Therefore, it is so ordered that the above captioned criminal history record be expunged pursuant to 13 V.S.A. §7603(f).

The following are expunged or sealed pursuant to this court order: all court files and records, law enforcement records, fingerprints, and photographs applicable to the proceeding. All agencies and officials in custody of such documents shall comply with this order and applicable law.

Amended Form Deleting Time Reference for First Two Options and Adding Reference to Resolved Objections

- Court records indicate that above captioned case has met the following criteria:
- The court did not find probable cause, or the charge was dismissed without prejudice
 - No party objected to sealing the criminal history record, or the Court has found that the interests of justice favor sealing.

Therefore, it is so ordered that the above captioned criminal history record be sealed pursuant to 13 V.S.A. §7603(a).

- Court records indicate that above captioned case has met the following criteria:
- The defendant was acquitted of charge or the charge was dismissed with prejudice before trial\
 - No party objected to expunging the criminal history record, or the Court found that the interests of justice favor expunging.

Therefore, it is so ordered that the above captioned criminal history record be expunged pursuant to 13 V.S.A. §7603(e).

- Court records indicate that above captioned case has met the following criteria:
- The criminal history record was sealed pursuant to 13 V.S.A. § 7603(a) or (g)
 - 8 years have elapsed since the record was sealed
 - No party objected to expunging the criminal history record, or the Court found that the interests of justice favor expunging.

Therefore, it is so ordered that the above captioned criminal history record be expunged pursuant to 13 V.S.A. §7603(f).

The following are expunged or sealed pursuant to this court order: all court files and records, law enforcement records, fingerprints, and photographs applicable to the proceeding. All agencies and officials in custody of such documents shall comply with this order and applicable law.