ORDER

FILED IN Elbert County
THIS 18 DAY OF March 2020
AT 4:50 P.M.

JUDGE MALCOLM
SUPERIOR COURTS
ELBERT JUDICIAL CIRCUIT

WHEREAS the Governor Brian Kemp has, in accordance with the provisions of O.C.G.A. § 38-3-51, officially declared a State of Emergency for the State of Georgia in connection with the Coronavirus/COVID-19 pandemic.

The COURT therefore recognizes a need to mitigate the further spread of said virus and acknowledges that the confinement of potentially infected or vulnerable persons in the county jail could exacerbate the present situation related to the transmission of the virus.

It is the ORDER of this COURT that the Sheriff of Elbert County, using sound discretion in doing so, is authorized to release any person who exhibits symptoms of the virus or is otherwise ill, infirm or vulnerable to infection, who is arrested and charged with crimes on their own recognizance to appear in court at a later date.

EXCEPT, the authority and discretion extended to the Sheriff shall not apply to the following offenses:

1. Treason;
2. Murder;
3. Rape;
4. Aggravated sodomy;
5. Armed robbery;
6. Home invasion in the first degree;
7. Aircraft hijacking and hijacking a motor vehicle in the first degree;
8. Aggravated child molestation;
9. Aggravated sexual battery;
10. Trafficking in a Controlled Substance in violation of Code Section 16-13-31 or Code Section 16-13-31.1;
11. Kidnapping;
12. Arson;
13. Aggravated Assault,
14. Burglary in the First Degree;
15. Smash and Grab Burglary
16. Aggravated Stalking;
17. Violations of Chapter 15 of Title 16,

18. Child Molestation,
19. And crimes of Family Violence as defined in O.C.G.A. §19-13-20,

This ORDER shall further allow said sheriff to release similar persons who are arrested on bench warrants, probation warrants, and arrest orders for contempt in the same described manner.

It shall be the obligation and responsibility of the accused, in signing an OR Bond, to provide a correct mailing address, and a continuing obligation and responsibility of the accused to advise the Sheriff and the Clerk of Court of any change in the accused's mailing address.

SO ORDERED this the 18 day of March, 2020.
